How to make a complaint Step-by-step guide

INFORMAL COMPLAINT

Complaints should be made with a member of staff or project manager. If you feel uncomfortable with this you can go directly to the complaints manager and make a FORMAL complaint.

You should say how you think your complaint could be best resolved. Your complaint will be recorded.

FORMAL COMPLAINT

If your complaint cannot be sorted by the above, or if you are not happy with the outcome, a formal complaints form should be completed.

This should be sent to the Complaints Manager. They will get back to you usually within 5 working days and give you the name of the investigating officer.

The investigating officer will investigate your complaint. On completion the investigation the complaints manager will contact you to inform you of the outcome.

You will be contacted or invited to a meeting to discuss the complaint. Notification of the outcome is in writing and normally within 10 working days.

APPEAL

If you are unhappy with the outcome you can appeal against the decision. An appeal form should be completed saying why you disagree with the outcome.

This should be sent to the complaints manager. This will then be passed to a Director who will consider your appeal and respond in writing within 10 working days.

COMPLAINTS TO EXTERNAL BODIES

At any stage during the complaints process you have the right to register your complaint with the appropriate external bodies involved in the commissioning and delivery of the service. The Complaints Manager will, on request, inform you in writing of all appropriate stakeholders relating to the particular project.
